Pandemonium 2012: Update + Hitmachine (The People’s Choice)

It’s still some time away, but preparations for the biggest early hardcore event of the year are already in full swing. Pandemonium, the name alone makes many hardcore fan’s heart beat faster, and the organization has already put a lot of effort into making this a great edition. The theme Virtual Imprisonment will be visually elaborated in a very cool way, and also musically plenty exciting things will happen. Cyndium decided this year, at the insistence of the public, to complement the 3 areas of the most recent editions with a genuine Early Terror room... Sore legs guaranteed!

Hitmachine People’s choice

Because the opinion of the visitors has high priority to Cyndium, the organization wants to invite you to actively be part of Pandemonium. The set of Hitmachine will therefore entirely be determined by you, the audience! At [url=http://www.cyndium.com/pandemoniumhpc2012/ [/url] you can find a list of 60 tracks which can be voted on. The tracks can all be heard separately and also you can see here how you can vote for your favorite songs. The tracks with the most votes will be processed by Hitmachine into a set!
